NIX MANN ENDOWED LECTURE

7:30 PM Ackerman Hall, Level Three

Revelry rituals related to feline goddesses and Hathor, the goddess of drunkenness, involved communal inebriation. In a lecture titled "Mut-Sekhmet-Bastet and Festivals of Drunkenness in the New Kingdom," Dr. Betsy Bryan, Alexander Badawy Professor of Egyptian Art and Archaeology at Johns Hopkins University, discusses these revelry rituals and their role in the worship of feline and Hathoric goddesses.

FILM SCREENING: SITA SINGS THE BLUES

7:30 PM Ackerman Hall, Level Three

Nina Paley's 2008 award-winning film Sita Sings the Blues is a deeply personal retelling of the Ramayana, created by a filmmaker who, like Sita, seeks to understand why her ideal husband rejected her. Paley wrote, directed, animated, and produced the film, which she describes as "a tale of truth, justice, and a woman's cry for equal treatment."
