SEPTEMBER 18–SEPTEMBER 24
GONKAR GYATSO: ARTIST IN RESIDENCE
10 AM – 6 PM  Level Three
While in residence at the Carlos, Gonkar will set up a studio space on Level Three of the museum where students, faculty, staff, and members of the Atlanta community can come and make tsa tsas, a traditional Buddhist offering made from molded clay. At the end of the week, hundreds of these small clay images of Buddhas and other meditational deities will be enshrined in the Baker Woodland behind the Carlos Museum, where they will naturally disintegrate over time.

OCTOBER 23 • SUNDAY
COILING CULTURE GALLERY TALKS AND RECEPTION
2 PM & 4 PM  Level One Galleries
Laura Wingfield, assistant curator of Art of the Americas, will give two back-to-back gallery talks in Coiling Culture: Basketry Art of Native North America with a reception in between. Enjoy wine and light snacks and hear Dr. Wingfield discuss the materials, making, and meaning of the baskets. Space is limited, and a reservation is required by calling 404.727.4280.

NOVEMBER 5 • SATURDAY
AFRICAN COFFEE TASTING AND GALLERY TALK
10 AM  Ackerman Hall, Level Three
Wake up in Africa! Ren Doughty of Batdorf and Bronson Coffee Roasters introduces the coffees of Africa followed by a tour of the new African galleries with curator Amanda Hellman. Space is limited, and a reservation is required by calling 404.727.4280.

OCTOBER 27 • THURSDAY
MUMMIES & MIXERS
7-9 PM  Level Three
Ready for a bone-rattling good time? Mummies & Mixers is back and bigger than ever, featuring music, costumes, film, and mouthwatering bites from Atlanta’s favorite caterers. YA members can purchase tickets at the Host Committee level for extra perks like a champagne toast, exclusive tour of the Egyptian galleries, and a complimentary entry into the raffle. Costumes are encouraged! Tickets and information are available at carlos.emory.edu/mummiesandmixers.

NOVEMBER 1, 8 & 15 • TUESDAYS
THE BARD IN BOLLYWOOD FILM SERIES
7:30 PM  Ackerman Hall, Level Three
In conjunction with the exhibition of Shakespeare's First Folio, the Carlos will screen Vishal Bhardwaj’s Shakespeare trilogy, which brought the Indian filmmaker and composer international critical acclaim.

NOV 1 Maqbool • NOV 8 Omkara • NOV 15 Haider
The Bhojanic food truck will be onsite for each showing.

carlos.emory.edu/YA