

SEPTEMBER

free!

27 THURSDAY | GALLERY TALK | 7:30 PM | Greek and Roman Galleries

Eric Varner, associate professor of Art History, will lead visitors through the museum's collection of Roman art, which includes exceptional portraiture, works from the reign of the emperor Augustus, and colorful mosaic floors that demonstrate the reach of the empire. Space is limited and registration is required by calling 404.727.6118.

OCTOBER

Bread & Butterfly

14 SUNDAY | COOKING WITH RANCHO GORDO | 2 PM | Ackerman Hall, Level Three

Beans—much like chocolate, chilies, corn, and potatoes—are native to the Americas. Spend the afternoon with Steve Sando, founder of Rancho Gordo, learning about the origins of the common bean in ancient Mexico, the many indigenous heirloom varieties, the Rancho Gordo-Xoxoc Project—his partnership with indigenous Mexican farmers—and how to cook his delicious beans.

Fee: $15 for Carlos Members, $25 for nonmembers.

Registration is required by calling 404.727.6118.

THIS PROGRAM IS MADE POSSIBLE BY THE GRACE W. BLANTON LECTURE FUND.

14 SUNDAY | DINNER WITH STEVE SANDO | 7 PM | Bread and Butterfly, 290 Elizabeth Street

Atlanta chef Billy Allin describes Steve Sando as “the most important farmer working in America today.” In honor of Sando’s visit to the Carlos, Billy will prepare a three-course meal with wine pairings at his Inman Park bistro, Bread and Butterfly, using Rancho Gordo products in every course.

Fee: $150 per person (Your gift is considered a charitable contribution minus the fair market value (FMV) of $65 per ticket.)

Space is limited and registration is required by calling 404.727.6118.

free!

18 THURSDAY | ANCIENT AMERICAS LECTURE | 7:30 PM | Ackerman Hall, Level Three

In a lecture titled “Touch and Tactility in Maya Art,” Megan O’Neil, assistant professor of Art History and faculty curator of art of the Americas, discusses ways in which the sense of touch is invoked or stimulated in ancient Maya art, writing, and the experience of things.

24 WEDNESDAY | MUMMIES & MIXERS | 7:30 PM–9:30 PM | Ackerman Hall, Level Three Mummies & Mixers is back with new frights and delights brought to you by master storyteller Barry Stewart Mann. Spooky tunes and mouthwatering bites from Atlanta’s favorite caterers will accompany face painting by Liquid Sky Entertainment while you savor tantalizing specialty cocktails crafted by Julian Goglia. Party with your favorite ghouls and fiends at the Carlos Museum’s premier fall event!

Visit carlos.emory.edu/mummiesandmixers for details.

free!

25 THURSDAY | LASZLO-EXCALIBUR LECTURE | 7:30 PM | Ackerman Hall, Level Three

Renowned critic and classicist Daniel Mendelsohn gives the annual Laszlo-Excalibur lecture titled “An Odyssey: A Father, a Son, and an Epic,” his deeply moving memoir of a father and son’s transformative journey reading and reliving Homer’s epic masterpiece.

NOVEMBER

divine
felines
Cats of Ancient Egypt
FEBRUARY 10 – NOVEMBER 11, 2018

last chance!

4 SUNDAY | DIVINE FELINES GALLERY TALK | 2 PM | Level Three

Don’t miss the last opportunity to tour the exhibition Divine Felines: Cats of Ancient Egypt with Melinda Hartwig, curator of ancient Egyptian, Nubian, and Near Eastern art.

Space is limited and registration is required by calling 404.727.6118