Begin your stay in Marrakech at the picture perfect Peacock Pavilions for Annette Joseph’s Creatives Retreat and learn the art of photography styling while immersed in the rich, colorful culture of this former imperial city. Quintessentially Moroccan, the Peacock Pavilions is a hotel with breathtaking natural surroundings, a treasure trove of antiques, and beautifully manicured grounds. It will be your point of departure for touring the city and market, going out for dinner and belly dancing performances, a wine tasting, and a henna party. Follow the intoxication of the city with three nights at hotel Palais Namaskar on the outskirts of Marrakech, which has received prestigious awards including “best hotel” and “best luxury green hotel” in Africa. The 12-acre resort is known as an oasis of wellbeing, and a place of perfect tranquility between the desert and majestic Atlas Mountains.
