In the hopes of widening the public's understanding of naturalism, German biologist Ernst Haeckel published Kunstformen der Natur (or Art Forms in Nature) in 1904. The work, equal parts scientific text and artistic endeavor, highlights Haeckel's particular interest in the symmetries in living forms. This illustration is from a copy in the Case Book Collection in the Prints and Photographs Division of the Library of Congress. A puzzle of 500 pieces. $17.95.

Late 19th- and early 20th-century children's books are the subjects of this print from the Bodleian Libraries. Richly illustrated covers in bright reds, blues and greens adorn the rows of shelves, featuring titles such as Little Miss Sunshine, No Ordinary Girl and A Girl of High Adventure. They are all light-hearted tales with brave female characters that can be found within the Bodleian Library, which is one of the oldest libraries in Europe. A puzzle of 500 pieces. $19.99.

Author and illustrator Edward Gorey was also a set and costume designer for theater productions from Cape Cod to Broadway, including a staging of Bram Stoker's Dracula, for which he was awarded a Tony. One of Gorey's stage designs for the play is reproduced for this challenging puzzle, giving you the opportunity to study his exquisite cross-hatched drawing technique up close. Intended for adults and children over 13 years. A puzzle of 500 pieces. $17.95.

Demonstrating influence from Impressionism and Japanese prints, Almond Blossom was painted in response to the birth of van Gogh's nephew. Motivated by the occasion and moved by his brother Theo naming the child after him, Van Gogh painted Almond Blossom as a gift in celebration of the event. He had previously been greatly inspired by flowering trees, and appreciated their power as symbols of rebirth. A puzzle of 1,000 pieces. $19.99.
The Roses of Heliogabalus: Velvet-Touch Jigsaw

This is a Velvet-Touch puzzle featuring the art of Sir Lawrence Alma-Tadema (1836-1912), a Dutch painter involved in the Romantic and Neoclassical movements. His depiction of luxury and decadence during the Roman Empire made him the most famous and highly paid artist in the Victorian Era. This richly colored puzzle features pieces with a soft, velvety feel, and no distracting puzzle glare. Also includes three bonus features: a sturdy, Velvet-Touch print suitable for framing, a handy box-top stand, and a re-closable bag to prevent lost pieces. A puzzle of 1,000 pieces. $28.95.

Hieronymus Bosch: Garden of Earthly Delights Jigsaw

The surreal imagery in Hieronymus Bosch’s masterpiece continues to fascinate viewers 500 years after its creation. Full of naked figures, fantastical creatures, and giant strawberries, the triptych depicts the Garden of Eden, Earth, and Hell. This puzzle features the center panel: the temptations on Earth, particularly the sin of lust (and thus is suggested for adults and children over 13). A puzzle of 1,000 pieces. $19.99.

Vintage Library Foil Stamped Jigsaw

This bibliophile’s jigsaw is a vibrant photo of old book spines with pieces that are stamped with shiny gold foil accents. This puzzle is packaged in stylish, matte-finish sturdy box, also with gold foil accents, perfect for gifting, reuse, and storage. A dazzling and challenging puzzle of 1,000 pieces. $17.99.

Vintage Pencils Foil Stamped Jigsaw

This puzzle features a vibrant photo of vintage pencils collected from around the US. This unique puzzle dazzles with pieces that are stamped with shimmering gold foil accents. A dazzling and challenging puzzle of 1,000 pieces. $17.99.

Mosaic Mind Bender Puzzle: An Ancient Roman Mosaic Jigsaw

Produced with the Getty Museum, this beautiful puzzle features three different mosaics: the centerpiece is from Herculaneum, the corners are from a Gallo-Roman stone and glass floor mosaic, and the side bars come from a third Roman design. A puzzle of 500 pieces. $16.99.

Marianne North: Honeyflowers and Honeysuckers Jigsaw

Kew Gardens has a gallery dedicated to the paintings of the remarkable Victorian artist Marianne North, who had a great eye for botanical detail. She painted her way through Africa, the Seychelles, and Chile. North’s journey to South Africa, where she painted this picture in 1882, was among her last. A puzzle of 1,000 pieces. $19.99.
Mancala, the African Stone Game

The captivating African Stone game, also known as Mancala is an ancient game that was played by scooping out pits and calas in the sand and, in many instances, used diamonds as stones. Many historians believe that mancala is the oldest game in the world. This stunning set includes a solid wood board with walnut stain and colored glass stones. Measures 22” x 6”. For 2 players. $36.

Bob Ross Dynamic Mug

When this “self-painting” mug is cold, Bob Ross in a black void reminds you to be calm and find time in your life to create. When you pour in a hot beverage, a Bob Ross painting magically appears to inspire you. “Play. Have fun.” These special mugs are not dishwasher safe but are microwave safe. 14 oz. $12.95. boxed.

Gustav Klimt: Adele Bloch Bauer Jigsaw

This portrait of Adele Bloch-Bauer I is part of the artist’s groundbreaking Golden Phase. Inspired by Byzantine mosaics, the original painting is layered with gold and silver leaf, and embellished with a textured gesso relief of elaborate geometric patterns. Klimt’s work was crucial in the evolution of art from the 19th century to the 20th, and his influence on illustration was momentous. A puzzle of 1,000 pieces. $19.99.

The Keepsake Puzzle

This Velvet-Touch jigsaw puzzle features the art of Kate Elizabeth Bunce (1856-1927), an English painter and poet associated with the Arts and Crafts movement. Bunce studied at the Birmingham School of Art in the 1880s and exhibited across the UK. A devout Christian, she painted a series of decorative pieces in churches, often in conjunction with her sister, a metalworker and watercolorist. The painting is based on a poem by Dante Gabriel Rossetti. Donations from the sale of this puzzle will go to American Women Artists (AWA). AWA has worked diligently to bring women artists to the forefront of the art world, greatly increasing professional opportunities in the visual fine arts and leading to greater inclusion in the field. A puzzle of 1,000 pieces. $28.95.

Aoki Toshio: Shoki and Demons Puzzle

Aoki Toshio (1854-1912) worked as a newspaper cartoonist and achieved success as a portraitist. He was probably best known for the murals he hand-painted in the homes of prominent Americans nationwide. The deity Shoki has Chinese origins and often appears in Japanese sculpture and painting of the Edo period (1615-1868). Legends vary but a common theme is that Shoki protects people from demons and evil. A beautifully detailed puzzle of 1,000 pieces. Now out of print, last copy! $19.99.
Senet, the Ancient Egyptian Board Game

Ancient senet games were found in King Tutankhamon’s tomb; over the centuries, the senet game evolved into backgammon, another game of chance and strategy. Wooden board with pullout drawer for storing game pieces, including four wooden “dice” sticks as well as contemporary dice. Measures 16” x 5” x 2”. $38.

Classic Paperbacks Notecards

Every book lover’s collection includes a few treasured favorites with frayed edges and covers soft from wear. Richard Baker’s remarkable paintings of vintage paperback books capture these intimate details. He started painting dogeared copies of vintage paperbacks several years ago and prowled used bookstores in search of appropriately careworn paperbacks to immortalize in his gouache portraits: “No precious first editions, no rare things—just your common companions.” The “book portraits” in this set feature titles by some of the most iconic writers of the modern era, from Emily Dickinson and Mark Twain to George Orwell and Susan Sontag. $16.95, boxed notecards.

Ohara Shōson Keepsake Boxed Notecards

Ohara Shōson (1877–1945) specialized in Japanese woodblock prints, particularly kachō-e (bird-and-flower pictures). The four prints included in this set of keepsake boxed notecards, all from the collection of the Toledo Museum of Art, show how meticulously he rendered both animals and nature, adding embossed detail in lieu of inking a design when necessary. Sixteen assorted 4½” x 5½” blank notecards (four each of four designs) with envelopes in a decorative hinged box. $15.95, boxed notecards.

Mosaics Magnified: A Detailed Notes Boxed Notecards

These small (5.5”x 4”) luxury notecards feature a striking close-up of a great artwork on the front, and the entire artwork on the back. This set of 16 notecards with four designs reproduces details of the Lion Hunt mosaic from Pella; the Alexander Mosaic and a mosaic column from Pompeii; and a mosaic floor from the Villa Romana del Casale, Piazza Armerina, Sicily. $14.95, boxed notecards.

Haikubes

Perfect for individual inspiration or as an after-dinner game with friends or family. Using a set of 63 word cubes, simply roll the cubes and use the words that come up to create an expressive haiku. Includes two cubes with inspirational cues to help guide the haiku. $24.95.
A Brief History of Art Mug

The History of Art Mug spans the story of art from Pre-history to Post-Modern—from Lascaux to Picasso—in a few sips of coffee or tea. It contains 24 masterpieces with timeline on a curved surface. 12 oz. generous cup, dishwasher/microwave safe. $12.95

Paper Flowers Cards and Envelopes: The Art of Mary Delany

Carlos Museum best-seller! Each exquisite paper flower in this elegant collection blooms with extraordinary detail and color. Eighteenth-century British artist Mary Delany created each piece by cutting and layering tiny pieces of paper on black ink backgrounds. The fine shading and depth are as intricately detailed as a botanical illustration and scientifically accurate as well. Printed on thick, textured paper, the set features sunflowers, rhododendron, cornflower, water lilies, and more. Perfect for any occasion that warrants beauty and sophistication. $16.95, box set.

Victoria & Albert Museum Chinese Tree Gold Foil Notecards

Carlos Museum best-seller! Eight cards each of two designs with envelopes. The box and each card are embellished with gold foil. $15.95, box set.

Akan Disc Earrings

The element in these earrings is reproduced from a traditional design currently worn by women in West Africa. Jewelry similar to this was originally produced in gold by the lost wax process. This type of gold disc has been a popular element in jewelry for 4000 years. 1.5” long, made with pewter with gold finish and blue glass beads. $21.

Matthew Williamson Birds & Blossoms Gold Foil Notecards

Carlos Museum best-seller! Eight cards each of two designs with envelopes. The box and each card are embellished with gold foil. $15.95, box set.

Asian Jade Earrings

Throughout history in both China and Japan, jade (jadeite or nephrite) has been considered the most precious of all stones. The ancient Chinese associated green jade with wisdom and the ability to ensure long life. This pair is made with “old and new” jade. $21.

Egyptian Lapis and Turquoise necklace
!Egyptian Lapis and Turquoise necklace

A Carlos Museum Bookshop bestseller for 25 years! Ancient Egypt, one of the richest and most advanced of the early civilizations, appeared on the stage of history over 5,000 years ago. Hieroglyphic scripts and tomb decorations document the Egyptians’ belief in the after-life, their mythology and deities. Jewelry was often worn as protective talismans. Gold was believed to reflect the life-giving rays of the sun, and the color and brilliance of gem stones traditionally determined their value and religious significance. 18” with lapis, carnelian, turquoise, pewter beads with gold finish. $67.
